From the President's Desk

Basma Swearingen

Where did September go? It is hard to believe that Fall is here when it is 90 degrees outside! I am looking forward to seeing everyone on Thursday, October 4, at Edgewater Conference Center.

Ironman will be held on November 3 and volunteers are needed October 30 - November 1. The event takes place at the Boardwalk Beach Hotel and Conference Center. Please check your calendars and sign up for as many time slots as you can. Make sure to wear your club shirt and sign in when you get there.

Birthday wishes to all our October ladies. Basma

“Spring Fling” Arts & Craft fair date and venue change to March 9, 2019 at Frank Brown Park

Sony Edwards

Due to the recent illness of Deborah England, Sony Edwards and Carol Lynn have stepped in to co-chair “Spring Fling”. The juried arts and craft show will be held on Saturday, March 9, 2019 at Frank Brown Park. They and their committee are working diligently to finalize plans.

Frank Brown Park was chosen in hopes of attracting more customers and vendors. The date coincides with the Scottish Festival, which is also being held at Frank Brown Park that day, so many people will be in the park, and hopefully will attend this event, also.

Eight vendors are already signed up, but many more are needed. Sony requests that all members talk up the fair with friends and neighbors. Sony remarked, “Several vendors told us that they were disappointed in the attendance at the last couple of our fairs. Please plan on finding a really wonderful crafter that would like to join us, and lots of friends that will come and support our efforts. We have promised to make these vendors happy, and, hopefully, the change of venue will bring in more buyers.”

Carol Lynn

Flyers will be available at the October meeting. Vendor applications can be printed from the club website. For more information contact Sony at sedwa53@gmail.com. Phone: 678-478-1955 or Carol Lynn at clynn3475@gmail.com. Phone: 770-883-0661.

Luncheon Price Changed

After the first of the year, luncheons will be $20.00.

Please Remember

Reservations must be made by 10 a.m. Monday before each meeting.

Shown above are two pictures of the Christmas Outreach committee in action in Christmases Past.

Christmas Outreach Committee under new leadership

Gail Claffey

Brenda Bryson

After many years of chairing the Christmas Outreach Committee, Karen Honeycutt is stepping down. Gail Claffey and Brenda Bryson have agreed to co-chair the committee that provides gifts to needy students of Panama City Beach at Christmastime.

Upon recommendation of the Beach elementary schools, the committee chooses several needy students each year to receive gifts and clothing to make their Christmas more complete.

After compiling the lists, the committee shops at Walmart and then meets to wrap and label each order. On a designated day, the gifts are distributed to the schools so the parents will have them in a timely manner.

Committee members usually are worn out from all their efforts, but are very happy and satisfied that they have helped so many youngsters have a Merry Christmas!
