(Initial) The Women's Civic Club of PCB is considered an event organizer and is required to secure a Special Event Permit, which requires submission of a list of all vendors. Upon completion of the event, each vendor must submit a Business Tax Receipt (BTR) reflecting the vendor's gross sales & payment of the 1% City Business License Tax. This 1% tax is separate from any sales tax due to the state. (For instance, if you have $500.00 in sales, you would owe $5.00 when filing the BTR. When paid the day of the event, there is a 3% discount for a total example payment total $4.85.) You will be supplied with instructions and the form to report & pay the 1% City Business Tax. You may submit this to the event organizer at the close of the event.

(initial) Neither the Women's Civic Club of PCB nor PCB Frank Brown Park and Recreation Center is responsible or liable for any loss, damage, injury, or theft of any Exhibitor's equipment or product while at the Arts and Craft Sale.
