April 2021

From the President's Desk

Nancy Stovall

Dear Members,

I am sure each of you were reminded of the different pranks you have played after receiving the April 1st luncheon invite (No Kidding) sent out by Sue. For the average trickster, there is always the classic April Fool's prank of covering the toilet with plastic wrap or switching out sugar and salt, which brings a smile to the prankster. There will not be any pranks, at least I hope so, at the luncheon, but you will smile as the fashion show models walk the runway.

A sincere thank you to the Arts and Crafts Committee for execution of a very successful event. With the amount of shopping bags being carried out from the center, the selection of the vendors provided something for everyone. Whether you were a member of the committee, a volunteer or a shopper, your contribution was greatly appreciated.

Although our fundraising activities have been limited, each of you make a positive impact on our community.

Nancy

Teamwork, organization and communication make "Spring Fling" a success

"Spring Fling" the annual juried Arts & Craft Sale for WCC was a tremendous success, according to Chairman Julie Sanders.

"We had approximately 250-275 people come through the door. We ended up with 23 vendors who sold a lot of their wares and were very pleased. We had a nice assortment for the sale.

How do I begin to thank you? You were all an awesome team to work with!

Thanks go out to the following people:

The Kitchen Committee, for a job well done and who were so busy that they ran out of sandwiches and desserts by 12:15.

To each of you who were able to get there Friday evening or Saturday, or both! Your help was needed and very much appreciated.

To the husbands, who placed and picked up the signs.

To Cheri Leistner for the PR. The newspaper ad and TV spot really helped.

To those of you who helped get the word out by posting in condos, businesses, etc.

Special thanks to Sue Jiles for all the printing she did. It was a lot.

Dance and Silent Auction all set for February 5, 2022

Silent Auction:

Co-chairs: Felicia England and Tammy Haight

A decision was made after much deliberation and a special Board Meeting that the club will not hold the dance and silent auction this year due to the Covid 19 virus and other considerations.

Please keep all auction items. What we have already received will be cared for carefully. Thank you very much for your patience.

Felicia - 850-319-3713

Dance Committee

Yes, this year's Boogie Beach Dance and Silent Auction are cancelled. However, Chairman Diane Vitale has a date all set up for February 5, 2022 at Lyndell Center.

Sue Jiles put it very nicely, "Thanks so much, Diane, for all your efforts to make this happen. We had such good input from everyone, and the stars are just not aligning for this event this year. Let's hope that being able to host the dance and silent auction next February will be just the beginning of a truly successful fund-raising year in 2022!"

In addition to the Mercy Chefs' food, the Food Pantry also supplied already-baked potatoes and yams that are supplied each week by Longhorn's, and other helpful items. President Nancy Stovall, ® had help selling brownies and cookies from volunteer Alexa Sivoplesova, a sophomore from Arnold High School. Several students from AHS volunteered for the event and were a great help.

Each vendor donated an item to be used as a prize (above) in a Bingo-type game played by customers when they visited each table. Above is the prize table set up by Sue Jiles and Monica Thomas.

Vendors are busy setting up their booths.

Special thanks to Monica Thomas and Sue Jiles for organizing the door prizes, Bingo cards, etc. That was a monumental task and so well organized.

Thank you to Monica Thomas for getting the student volunteers from Arnold High School. Their help was needed and appreciated by the vendors.

We also had two Beach police who helped the vendors unload. They were great.

Thanks to Jane Fillingim and Elaine Lichtenberger for the signs you created and the balloons.

Thank you Elaine Lichtenberger for being there with your experience and words of advice as a past chairman of the event.

I know that many of you have had some health issues along this journey, and I pray that you are well and on the road to recovery. Always know that your health comes first! We had a great team to fill in when some couldn't be there. That's what makes our club amazing !

Thank you from the bottom of my heart! Julie
