From the President's Desk

Nancy Stovall

"Ring in the new year" is an occasion to reflect on what we have accomplished and look forward to our future opportunities. The ancient Babylonians were the first people to make New Year resolutions, some 4,000 years ago. Although the resolutions have changed over the years, the intent centers on thinking about what has been done and finding a way to do better in the future.

An example is how the women in our club, along with some significant others, have found a way to do better is by unwrapping hats for the New Year's Eve Ball Drop sponsored by the TDC. The process went from unwrapping hats on New Year's Eve, barely keeping up with the demand and freezing in the cold, to taking three hours in a conference room on December 18th and removing the packaging for 10,000 hats. What an incredible team of women we have!

Our next focus is making the Beach Boogie Dance and Silent Auction on February 1st a memorable event. It takes the entire club to make it a success.

The Panama City Beach Mardi Gras and Music Festival will be held on February 21st and 22nd, and we have been given the opportunity to sell beverages at the event.

Then, on March 7th, our Spring Fling Arts & Craft Sale will be held at Frank Brown Park.

WCC gets head start on New Year's Eve at Pier Park

Beach Boogie Dance

From Kay Vider

Ladies, It's that time of year again to start selling tickets and handing out flyers for our dance on February 1. At the January 2 meeting, I will have the tickets and flyers to distribute to you. If you need them earlier, you may go to Diamond Title Agency, Pat Diamond's office, 11053 Hutchison Blvd., across from Saltwater Grill.

As of January 6 we will start selling tickets at the Lyndell Center, so I do need some people to sign up for that. You can do that at the January meeting or give me a call at 850-596-0638. We will decorate on January 31, so put that on your calendar! We need your help!

If we can each sell three to four tickets, then we would meet our goal. Please talk to your friends and neighbors and see if we can get a nice crowd again this year. Don't forget about our auction and the good food, too. Participating in these type of activities makes it fun for everyone. Hope to see you at the dance.

Arts & Craft Committee

The Arts & Crafts Committee would like to remind all members that "Spring Fling" will be held at Frank Brown Park on March 7, 2020, the same day as the Scottish Festival. Chairman Elaine Lichtenberger would like to remind members to look for new vendors and get the applications in to her. She will have registration forms and flyers available at the January luncheon meeting.

Then word needs to reach the community to ensure a record-breaking attendance.

Ask all your friends to save that date!

Books given in memory of past members and friends

Laura Laspee and Nancy Stovall are pictured with the many books purchased with the WCC donation of $1,000 to the Panama City Beach Library recently.

In addition to these, it is a tradition of the Women's Civic Club to donate a book to the library in honor of deceased members. This was done in honor and memory of Eileen "Sophie" Wells, Cherry Creekmore, Francis Cooney (Jean's husband), Randy Phillips (Nan VandenBerg's son) and Dotti Perfetti.

Please, remember items for the Food Pantry each month!

Meet Miz "Sweet Pea"

A new pig has replaced the one that was broken recently in a tragic fall in a parking lot. After asking for suggestions for a name, the name Sweet Pea was chosen at the December Luncheon.

Some members may wonder why a pig is passed around at each meeting. Originally it was passed around for those who had birthdays that month to drop in a penny for each year of their age. Also, if a member forgot to wear her name tag pin to the meeting, she was to put in a quarter.

More recently, Happy Dollars have been included. All of these are just fun and small ways to raise money for the club, along with 50/50 tickets.
